

Why cycle?

- Environmentally beneficial
- Less traffic and pollution
- Cheaper than driving
- Faster
- Health benefits
- Social sport

Why cycle the Loop?

Quick. Easy. Free! Cycle to these easily accessible sights.

- 1 Marlow Lock
Built in 1927, with stunning riverside views

- 3 All Saints Church
Built in 1835, on the site of a 12th century church

- 4 Marlow Bridge
Built in 1832 by W. T. Clark, a small version of Budapest's 1839 Chain Bridge

- 8 Remnantz
Built around 1720, Royal Military Academy location (now at Sandhurst)

- 9 Riley Park
Recreation grounds gifted to the people of Marlow in 1914

“Nothing compares to the simple pleasure of a bike ride.”
– John F. Kennedy

Leaflet created for TTM
by NCS Team Emeke, July 2017

A better way to explore

MARLOW
LOOP

www.transitionmarlow.org

Marlow Loop (4 miles)

Shared use cycle paths

Directions to other cycle routes

A Road to Chiltern Cycleway

B Road to Seymour Park & Community Orchard

C Cycle route to Marlow Bottom & Rebellion Brewery

D Cycle route towards Little Marlow & Bourne End

 Marlow train station

 Tourist info (library)

 Saddle Safari (bike shop)

 Bike racks

 Take care: vehicles turning/congestion

 Pedestrian crossing

